furnish a jury for the trial of J. S. McCue. The October term of the Hustings Court, of this city, will begin at about the time set for the McCue trial, and jurymen will be at a premium here.

Even before the arrest of McCue varying opinions as to that explanation of the case were expressed here, and the subject has been one of such widespread interest and discussion, that it would seem hardly probably that a jury could be obtained from Petersburg talesmen.

FISHBURNE ON TRIAL.

Rev. J. W. Fishburne, a colored preacher from Trenton, N. J., has been on trial to-day in the Hustings Court on an indictment charging him with obtaining money by false representations of real estate which he sold to several colored brethren in Petersburg.

CHESTER, VA., September 23.—The coroner's jury in the case of the killing of Lizzle Tilley Monday night at this place, rendered a verdict that she was killed by the cannon hall train from Norfolk, between 6:20 and 7 P. M. No biame was attached to the railroad company, as there were no particulars known to itx any biame. Rev. Mr. Jordan has stated since that he saw the girl, of some object, running before the car at the time from his porch, but hearing no danger signals, and the train not stopping, he concluded that whatever it was, it left the track before the train struck it, and did not consequently go to investigate. The girl was about twelve years of age, and not experienced about the cars, and, in fright, doubtless, ran before the ear, trying to reach the crossing to her home, which was a short distance altead.

Makes a Practical Speech to a Fine Audience—Incendiary Fire.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SURRY. VA. Sept. 23.—There was quite a crowd out yesterday, both to strend to court business and to hear the address of Lieutenant-Governor Joseph E. Willard. He discussed the political issues, of the day in a plain, business-like talk characterisise of the man, to one of the day in a plain, business-like talk characterisise of the man, to one of Surry's representative audiences of whites and a few negroes. He touched on the tariff and held of the platforms of the two parties in comparison, showing to this attentive nudience the economical administration of affairs of the Democrate during the last term of Mr. Cleveland to the present wasteful and extravagant term of office of Mr. Roosevelt.

Imperialism came in for a share of his remarks, and showing the centralization of the one man power in the person of the present occupant of the White House to be fraught with great danger. He then discussed the negro problem and declared that the South would have to settle it, and if the ignorance displayed by those who claim to be the negroes' friend in trying to teach him social equality, the question would have been settled a decade sooner than it can ever be hoped for now-the Booker T. Washington incident of the White House being mentioned.

While Mr. Willard was known to only a very few of our people this morning, he was tendered quite an ovation and a reception after his speech, and he gained for himsoff many friends who will be glad to hear him again.

The store of T. J. Spratley, in this place, was burned yesterday morning about 50 clock. The house was owned by J. A. NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Seplember 28.—
William I. Nagle was granted an absolute divorce from his wife, ida Naglo, in the Corporation Court this morning, and will in two weeks wed Mrs. Catherine Benvill, who was one of the principal witnesses in the divorce suit.

The divorce was granted upon statutory grounds, Mrs. Nagle offering no defense, and not being represented by counsel. The woman is now living in Portsmouth.

The suit was brought as the result of a shooting affair which occurred on April 23, 1903. Dessie L. Basket and Harry Tremp, two men who had been hanging about the Nagle home for some time, became involved in a difficulty with Nagle, and the latter opened fire on them pecame involved in a difficulty with Nagle, and the latter opened fire on them with a revolver. Basket was dangerously wounded, and lay at the point of death in the hospital for some time. Tremp was shot in the hand, and before Nagle's trial took place he had departed for parts unknown.

Nagle was acquitted in the Corporation Court, and shortly afterwards entered suit for divorce against his wife, naming both Basket and Tremp as co-respondents. The testimony showed that Nagle's $2,000 life insurance policy was found upon Basket's person after the shooting, and Mrs. Benvill testified that Mrs. Nagle told her that Basket and Tremp were planning to get her husband out of the way so that she could marry one of them. M'GOVERN-MURPHY BOUT RESULTS IN A DRAW

(By Associated Press.)

PHILADELPHIA. PA. Sept. 28.—Before a crowd that filled the National Athletic Club to nght, Hughey McGovern and Tommy Murphy, of New York, fought six of the fastest rounds ever witnessed in this cty. Under the law no decions can be rendered here, but it was the opinion of the spectators that the bout was a good draw.

There was only one knock-down during the entire contest, and that was at the beginning of the first round, when Murphy went down from a right swing to the jaw. He was up again in a moment, however, and returned the blow with another which opened a cut on McGovern's eye. Murphy was the aggressor at the start, but McGovern did not seek to avoid him at any time, and the exchange of blows was rupid and severe all the time the men were on their feet.

At the end of the bout both men showed alors of weariness and distress, but not and the related at any time secured a decided advantage.
